INVITATION

Dear young athletes, coaches and officials...

One of the biggest canoe event in 2018 - Olympic Hopes Regatta in canoe sprint will take place in Poland at Malta Regatta Course in Poznan.

On behalf of Polish Canoe Federation I cordially welcome you in Poznan – venue well known in canoe world.

This year Olympic Hopes Regatta will be organized on the centenary of regaining independence of the Republic of Poland and 90th anniversary of Polish Canoe Federation.

I wish all participants pleasant stay in Poznan and satisfaction from sports results.

*Tadeusz Wroblewski
President*

POZNAN

Poznan is a city on the Warta River in west-central Poland, in the Greater Poland region. It is one of the oldest and largest cities in Poland. Poznan is a modern metropolis, a city offering high standards, open and dynamic. It is a centre of trade, sports, education, technology and tourism. It is also an important academic site with about 130.000 students and many renown institutions of higher education.

The city offers a multitude of sport venues - tennis courts, swimming pools, bowling centres, weight rooms, gyms, recreational centres, horse-riding clubs, two golf courses and an archery range. The flagship of the City of Poznan is the Malta Regatta Course, considered one of the best and the prettiest in the world.

How to get to Poznan?

By plane
